

Active Learning

Q1. Describe cyber law in detail? what is cyber space?

ans: Cyber laws are laws governing cyber space. Cyber space is the space for common our computer network within a national boundary.

Q2] Why is there need of cyber law?

ans: Need of cyber laws:

- i. The Cyberspace is completely different sphere of human existence
- ii. Government and territorial boundaries do not play any foresight to dynamic cyberspace. It's also very difficult to regulate and censor as it is operable through different dynamic places at a same time.
- iii. To facilitate international norms
- iv. Cyber laws needs to be specified
- v. Conventional law will be middle up the cyber law structure.

Q3] Describe IT Act 2000. What is computer and computer network and system work IT act 2000?

- ans:
- i. The IT Act 2000 provide legal recognition to the transaction done via e-exchange of data and other electronic mean of communication or e-commerce transaction.
 - ii. "Computer" want any electronics, magnetic, optical or other high speed data processing device or system which performs logical, arithmetic and memory function by manipulating of impulses and all oper that relate to which are connected.
 - iii. "Computer network" is the connection b/w two or more computer through :-
 - i. The use of communication media using terrestrial lines, microwave, satellite, etc.
 - ii. A terminal consisting of various mutually connected computers whether the interconnection is continuously maintained or not.

Q4] Skel the cybercrimes coming under IPC and what is the punishment for the same.

and:	Offence	Law	Punishment
1.	Sending threatening msg by email	Sec 503 IPC	Criminal Intimidation
2.	Sending defamatory msgs by msgs	Sec 499, 500 IPC	Imp. 'sonment which may extend upto 2 years or fine.
3.	Forging e-records	Sec 463, 470, 471 IPC	— " —
4.	Bogus website cyber Frauds	Sec 420 IPC	— " —
5.	Email spoofing	Sec 416, 417, 463 IPC	— " —
6.	Online sale of Drugs	NDDPS Act	Rigres imprisonment 10 to 20 years, fine of 1-2 Lakh regardless to the quality.
7.	Web jackets	Sec 383 IPC	Imprisonment which may extent to 3 years and for fine.